PREFACE.

Confident that its mission is a good and useful one, the DIRECTORY OF MIDDLEBORO AND LAKEVILLE greets its patrons once more. No section with a population as large as this has should try to get along without a directory, which should be issued as often as once in two years. The proof that this is understood by the leading business men here lies in the excellent showing of our advertising pages, to which we ask your attention. The men who are putting their capital into business in your midst deserve your first offer of patronage, and can serve you as well as can merchants anywhere.

The canvass has been made with care and the work of the printer is creditable to his skill. The publisher cordially thanks the many friends who have kindly rendered assistance in the compilation of the work.

EDWARD A. JONES, Publisher.

Seeds

This firm and its predecessors have handled fine garden and flower seeds for nearly forty years. This branch of our business has increased from year to year until we are now acknowledged to be among the largest handlers of fine seeds in Southeastern Massachusetts. We handle only one grower's seeds, and thus know every time we sell seed just where they come from. We are wholesale and retail distributors of Emerson's Northern Grown, Tested Seeds. We have handled these seeds for years with entire satisfaction to our customers, resulting in a largely increased business each year. We solicit your orders in person or by mail.

The kind of printing which is good for a business—which is planned so as to be appropriate—which attracts by its correct style and quality—which can only be procured from printers of experience and ability—which does not happen, but is intended—this kind of printing costs more to produce than the several other kinds, but it is the cheapest printing to use, and is therefore worth more than you pay for it.

THE MEMORIAL PRESS, Plymouth, Mass., is producing this kind of printing, every day, and the best ought to be none too good for your business.
